

11 JUNE - 1 DAY

"FROM ROCKIES TO STEPPES: UNLOCKING KAZAKHSTAN'S MINING POTENTIALS WITH CANADIAN EXPERTISE"

11 JUNE, 4.30 PM - 6.00 PM
KOMATSU HALL

OBJECTIVE OF THE SESSION:

The session aims to provide Canadian mining companies with a platform for open dialogue with Kazakhstani partners, regulators, and investors in order to exchange practical experience related to entering and operating in the Kazakhstan market, identify systemic barriers, and jointly develop recommendations for the further advancement of Kazakhstan's mining and metallurgical sector, and strengthen opportunities for successful business engagement in the country

MODERATOR:

Jonathan Berkshire Miller - International Affairs Expert, Macdonald-Laurier Institute, Canada

PARTICIPANTS:

Alibek Kuantyrov - Deputy Minister of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Kazakhstan

Christopher Duggan - Ambassador of Canada to Kazakhstan, Kyrgyz Republic, Tajikistan, Turkmenistan and Uzbekistan

Dauletbek Kussainov - Ambassador of Kazakhstan to Canada

Neil Reeder - Vice President, B2Gold

Darren Klinck - President, Arras Minerals

Chad Hewson - Director of Exploration, Teck Resources

James Banyard - Exploration Manager for Central Asia, First Quantum Minerals

Dimoury Boyarinov - Manager, Business Development, Chemetics